

Proclamation of the Mayor City of Northome September 1, 2010

Whereas, domestic violence is a serious crime that affects people of all races, ages, gender and income levels; and

Whereas, domestic violence is widespread and affects over 4 million Americans each year; and

Whereas, one in three Americans have witnessed an incident of domestic violence; and

Whereas, children that grow up in violent homes are believed to be abused and neglected at a rate higher than the national average; and

Whereas, domestic violence costs the nation billions of dollars annually in medical expenses, police and court costs, shelters, foster care, sick leave, absenteeism and non-productivity; and

Whereas, only a coordinated community effort will put a stop to this heinous crime; and

Whereas, Domestic Violence Awareness Month provides an excellent opportunity for citizens to learn more about preventing domestic violence and to show support for the numerous organizations and individuals who provide critical advocacy, service and assistance to victims;

Now Therefore, I, James Schneider, Mayor of the City of Northome, do hereby proclaim the month of October as

DOMESTIC VIOLENCE AWARENESS MONTH

and urge our citizens to work together to eliminate domestic violence from our community.

Mayor James Schneider
